Interest rate subsidy on a new loan (expression of interest)

This assistance is an interest rate subsidy on a new loan secured for recovery from the disaster. This may include repair of damage caused by the disaster, implementing measures for next season's production or replacing lost livestock or assets.

The current maximum principal loan amount which qualifies for an interest rate subsidy is $150,000.

Please note that your expression of interest is to establish whether your business is likely to be eligible and should not be considered 'approval' for this assistance measure.

- Your expression of interest will be initially reviewed by the Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD).
- The Department of Fire and Emergency Services will then liaise directly with you to apply with a participating authorised deposit taking institution (ADTI); the lender.
- The ADTI will assess your eligibility against lending guidelines.

You must answer yes to the following questions to be eligible for this assistance.

Do you intend to take out a new business loan to recover from the disaster?

Yes No

Was your primary production business established and operating at least 12 months prior to the disaster?

Yes No

Do you intend to continue or re-establish your primary producer operation within the same location or local government area?

Yes No
