State NRM Program Funding Acknowledgement Guide

When should I acknowledge the funding?

Every mention of your project should acknowledge funding from the Western Australian Government's State Natural Resource Management Program. Examples include:

- Media releases, announcements, newspaper articles, radio interviews
- Social media posts, videos (for example on Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, Threads, X (formerly Twitter) TikTok and YouTube)
- Newsletters, brochures, flyers, reports, documents, websites
- Signage, pull-up banners, posters
- Events, workshops, forums, conferences.

The State NRM Program must approve all written acknowledgements and logo use prior to public release, except for social media posts which adhere to the acknowledgement provisions below.

Please direct draft acknowledgements and logo use to snrmo@dpird.wa.gov.au for approval.

Using the State NRM Program logo

The logo should be used on all publications, reports, advertising, products, signage and other written or visual communication directly related to your project, except for social media posts.

You do not, under any circumstances, have permission to remove the state government crest from this logo. The logo must be used in full and must not be distorted, stretched or squashed.

Please note the correct usage requirements per the image above. The logo should not be smaller than 7.8 cm in width, with the Government of Western Australia crest being no smaller than 1.5 cm.

High-quality versions of the logo, including AI, EPS and JPG, can be downloaded in a ZIP file (1.7MB) by accessing the hyperlink below in SmartyGrants:

Written and verbal acknowledgement

Acknowledgement text as outlined below must be included on all social media posts, publications, advertising, media releases or any other form of communication in relation to your project.

This is also an example of appropriate words that should be used to acknowledge your funding source in videos, radio, speaking engagements, public launches, events or forums.

- This project is supported by funding from the Western Australian Government's State NRM Program.

Links to State NRM Program social media and websites

Where possible, the inclusion of hyperlinks to the State NRM Program website and social media channels is encouraged. Social media posts do not require inclusion of the logo.
